Packy McFarland.

Packy McFarland, the stock yards scrapper, spent part of yesterday in Salt Lake on his way from the coast to Chicago as a guest of Win Ferrin. It was his first visit to Salt Lake and he made the stop here on account of the reports given out about Salt Lake by Pete Sullivan, Dick Hyland and Battling Neison, three scrappers who think there is no town like Zion. McFarland was to have met Hyland on the coast on Feb. 22, but called the fight off on account of the illness of his mother, whom he is now rushing home to see. McFarland is not at all sure as to his immediate future but, like all of the top notchers in the lightweight class, is anxious to get a try at Battling Nelson. McFarland met many of the local fight fans while in the city.

Denver, Feb. 11.—George A. Kelly, formerly a football star, recently came into wide public notice through an operation performed on him at the Georgetown hospital at Washington, D. C., whereby the knee-pan from a dead man was substituted for his own in order to prevent loss of his leg. But the notoriety also brought his whereabouts to his wife's notice, and yesterday Mrs. Mona J. Kelly filed suit for diverce against him in the county court. Mrs. Kelly alleged they were married in St. Louis, Jan. 27, 1960, and that Kelly deserted her just four months later. Desertion is charged. Kelly's leg was injured while playing football several years ago.
